Sir,

With reference to your Memo No 4654 dated 1st Instant forwarding copy of Notification No 4687/Mel 85-08-20 dated 1st Idem directing the Deputy Commissioner of the Chuvaga District to take order for the acquisition of the properties required for laying out extensions in the Town of Chuvaga, I have the honor to bring to your notice the great inconvenience that would be caused if I were to take up the work of acquisition at this time of the year when the Jamabandy of Taluks has to be settled before the commencement of the Northeast and a deal of acquisition work pertaining to the Forest, Revenue, Excise, Registration and other Departments has to be completed before the close of the year. It is for this reason that I requested in my Letter No 193/183 dated 11th October 1909 that the Assistant Commissioner in charge of the Outpost Treasury may be authorized to acquire the required properties I request therefore that you would kindly have the notification above referred to, modified in accordance with my letter No 493/33 dated 11th October 1933 I shall, of course, see that the awards made by the Treasury Assistant Commissioner are submitted to me for approval in each case

I have the honor to be,
Sir
